

THE TORONTO HYPERBARIC MEDICINE SYMPOSIUM 2007

Two great conferences.
One great weekend.

This year, the Toronto Hyperbaric Medicine Symposium & The Great Lakes Chapter of the Undersea & Hyperbaric Medical Society (Oct. 20) come together for a weekend of outstanding lectures in the fields of Hyperbaric & Diving Medicine.

The THMS is a one day symposium that focuses on research level topics of clinical significance, presented by leaders in hyperbaric medicine. We emphasize collaboration and discussion to enhance learning, and to stimulate further research. The day will conclude with a social meet and greet with the faculty.
