Community Resources in Toronto

During your cancer treatment you might decide to apply for income support, drug coverage or other services. Sometimes the application forms can be long and confusing.

Here is a list of community agencies in Toronto that help people fill out forms.

Call the agency in your area to make an appointment.

If you need to find an agency outside of Toronto, ask your local Community Information Centre. We have a list of these centres in our Patient Resource Guide for Patients with Leukemia, Lymphoma, Multiple Myeloma and their Families. You can get this guide from Psychosocial Oncology and Palliative Care, 16th floor, room 718, or from the wall display outside the Transfusion Centre on the 2nd Floor.
