

The Canadian Concussion Centre at the University Health Network is pleased to provide a free online workshop

Prolonged Symptoms of Single and Multiple Concussions: An Education and Support Workshop

(for those that have experienced concussion)

WHAT?

- Online workshop
- Education on concussion, including a review of current research on the short- and long-term effects of single and multiple concussions
- Review of strategies that may assist in the management of prolonged post-concussive symptoms
- Question and answer period

WHEN?

Dates offered for online sessions :

- May 26th 2020
- September 29th , 2020
- November 15th, 2020

WHERE?

Canadian Concussion Centre website > go to Patient Support tab at www.canadianconcussioncentreuhn.ca

SPEAKERS:

- Dr. Charles Tator (Professor of Neurosurgery, University of Toronto, Division of Neurosurgery, Toronto Western Hospital, Director, Canadian Concussion Centre)
- Dr. Lesley Ruffan (Psychologist – Clinical Neuropsychology/Clinical Psychology), Toronto Rehab/UHN)
- Dr. Apameh Tarazi (MD, Neurologist, Krembil Neuroscience Centre)

No REGISTRATION REQUIRED.