

Did you know?

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

1

UHN Patient & Family Learning Centres offer print and electronic collections of resources promoting Black Health. All resources are free and available to everyone.

Library E-books collection

2

A B3 organization is Black-led, Black-serving, and Black-focused, supporting Black communities by addressing their specific needs. Examples in Toronto include Black Creek Community Health Centre, Black Coalition for AIDS Prevention, and Black Health Alliance.

Black Creek Community Health Centre

Black Coalition for AIDS Prevention

Black Health Alliance

3

UHN has a dedicated YouTube channel for ACB (African, Caribbean, Black) organ health.

YouTube channel for ACB

4

Every first Monday in March, Toronto celebrates Black Mental Health Week to raise awareness about the impact of anti-Black racism on mental health and social well-being.

Learn More about Black Mental Health Week

